

Please leave XM radio and satalite radio alone. This is the greatest thing that has happened to radio. I never listen to local stations because of the quality, consistency and clarity of XM radio. I feel the FCC will be held accountable if they mess up satalite radio